1 Peter 1:13-21 - Listener Notes

- A. To “gird up your minds” means to get prepared for something.
- B. We will receive our salvation at the rapture.
- C. God will guard our salvation until we actually receive it.
- D. God will guard our salvation until we actually receive it.
- E. God will guard our salvation until we actually receive it.
- F. God will guard our salvation until we actually receive it.
- G. God will guard our salvation until we actually receive it.
- H. Even the prophets of God searched the Scriptures to understand salvation.
- I. The prophets also searched the Scriptures to learn more about the Messiah.
- J. Peter points out how privileged we are to have so much information about God and His plan. The Jews, and even angels, didn't have the information that we have.
- K. Angels are observing us and how God deals with us to learn about our salvation.
- L. We should express out joy for all that God has done for us when we worship Him.
- M. God wants a close personal relationship with me. The more I read the Bible, the more I can understand about God's relationship with me.
